FIVE INDICTMENTS

They Were Returned Just as the Train Bearing Mrs. Chadwick Arrived in Cleveland.

GREETED BY HOOTS OF DERISION.

The Woman Made No Attempt to Give Bail and She is in Cell 14, Female Department.

Her Palatial Residence on Euclid Avenue, of Which the Furnishings Are Valued at $200,000, Occupied By Her Maid.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 15.—Five times indicted by the United States at the exact minute that her train rolled into the station, Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick came home to Cleveland Wednesday afternoon. She was greeted with jeers, hoots and hisses by the crowds that gathered in the depot when her train arrived, and howled at by hundreds gathered in front of the federal building. The last sound that reached her from the outside world, as she passed into the stuffy, ill-smelling office of Sheriff Barry, in the county jail, was the hoot of derision from the people massed in front of the doorway. She made no attempt to give bail and after brief stops in the office of the clerk of the United States court, was taken to jail. She is held in cell 14 in the woman's department of the jail, and her palatial residence on Euclid avenue, of which the furnishings alone are valued at $200,000, is occupied by her maid.

Fell in a Dead Faint.

Her courage held to the last, but her body failed her and when she had mounted the three flights of stairs leading to the tier of cells, where she is to remain, she collapsed utterly and fell in a dead faint. But for the aid of Deputy United States Marshals Kumb and Kelker, who held her up and almost carried her along as she mounted the stairs, she never would have been able to reach her cell. Breathless, pale and staggering, she was barely able to reach a chair, as the steel door of the woman's corridor swung open to receive her. She sank feebly into a chair, her head fell backward, and but for the marshals she would have rolled to the floor. Water was quickly brought to her, and in a few seconds she revived and was again a woman of business.

Her First Request.

Her first request was that her lawyer, Sheldon Q. Kerruish, be sent for, and she was soon engaged in a conference with him concerning her defense. There is small chance that she will be able to leave the jail before her trial. There are now seven indictments against her—five additional charges having been laid against her in the federal court Wednesday afternoon. It would require surety to the amount of at least $100,000 to give her freedom, and there is nobody in Cleveland who will furnish that amount for her. She has herself no idea of giving bail and will remain in jail. She has the best cell in the place, but it is not a nice cell, nor is the county jail of Cuyahoga county a nice jail even as jails go, but it is the best there is and there she must remain.

The Federal Indictments.

The federal indictments against Mrs. Chadwick are five in number, three of them charge her with aiding and abetting officers of a national bank to defraud the institution, and two charge her with conspiring against the United States. Of the four indictments against President Beckwith, of the Oberlin bank, two charge him with misapplication of funds of a national bank; one with conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States, and one with certifying checks when no funds were on hand. The indictments against Cashier Spear are the same as those against President Beckwith.

The first witness before the grand jury was United States Marshal Chandler, who presented to the jury the sworn statement of President Beckwith. This is the document which has been called the "confession" of Beckwith. It set forth, in effect, that there were two notes of $500,000 each, both signed in the name of Andrew Carnegie, and that Mrs. Chadwick declared positively, both to him and to Cashier Spear, that she personally saw Mr. Carnegie sign his name to both notes. Why Oberlin Bank Made the Loans.

It was also set forth in the statement that a New York attorney, who claimed to be a representative of Andrew Carnegie, had declared to Beckwith in Oberlin that the notes were genuine. The endorsement of the notes by Beckwith and Spear was admitted, but the statement declared neither of them had any idea that they were to be used in the manner in which Mrs. Chadwick handled them. Mr. Beckwith's statement declared that they received from Irl Reynolds information to the effect "that everything was all right," and that a large amount of good securities belonging to Mrs. Chadwick were held by the Wade Park bank. This encouraged him to make loans to Mrs. Chadwick.

The second witness was T. K. Whitney, township treasurer of Oberlin. James R. Severance, treasurer of Oberlin college, narrated the facts connected with loans made to Mrs. Chadwick by the college, and told him the money had been repaid. Cashier Spear and J. E. Barrett, of Wooster, were other witnesses. The hearing consumed all of the morning and was finished shortly before 2 o'clock in the afternoon, after the jury had been 30 minutes in session after luncheon.

ELECTION DECISION.

The Vote of One Precinct in Denver, Col., Thrown Out.

Denver, Col., Dec. 15.—By deciding Wednesday to throw out the vote of Precinct 7, Ward 8, of this city, in consequence of frauds committed there at the late election, the supreme court established a precedent that may be applied to many other precincts in which it is alleged the court's injunction order was violated and thereby vitally affect the results of the late election. Should similar action be taken in other cases to the extent demanded by the republicans' lawyers, it will result in the election of the entire republican legislative ticket in this county and give the republicans control of both branches of the legislature.

DEATH OF L. CLARKE DAVIS.

He Was Editor-in-Chief of the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—L. Clarke Davis, editor-in-chief of the Public Ledger, of this city, died at his home here Wednesday of heart disease, aged 70. Mr. Davis, who has been managing editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, became identified with the Public Ledger about 12 years ago, and up to the time of his last illness directed the policy of that newspaper. He is survived by a widow, Rebecca Harding Davis, the author, a daughter and two sons, one of the latter being Richard Harding Davis, who is prominent as a war correspondent, novelist and magazine writer.

THE SEVASTOPOL.

The Only Russian Battleship Left at Port Arthur Escaped From Harbor.

JAPS FLEET WILL GO INTO DOCK.

Streets of Port Arthur Are Deserted and But Few Soldiers Are Doing Patrol Duty.

Docks and Buildings On the Water Front Are Torn and Burned—Japs Shells Reach Every Part of the City.

Headquarters of the Third Japanese Army, via Fusan, Dec. 15.—The Russian battleship Sevastopol, the only Russian warship that escaped destruction, being docked, when the other vessels, were sunk after the Japanese captured 203 Metre hill, escaped from the dock and harbor Tuesday night and is now anchored under a protecting mountain. Some torpedo craft are also outside of the harbor. The tremendous price in life paid by the Japanese for the capture of 203 Metre hill has been redeemed by the utter destruction of the Russian fleet. The Japanese fleet will now go into dock.

Every part of the city and harbor of Port Arthur is visible from 203 Metre hill. The streets of the city are deserted and but few soldiers are doing patrol duty. Many buildings have been burned and others shattered. The shelters of the harbor present a strange appearance, with the turrets, masts and funnels of warships showing just above the water. There is not a vessel afloat in the harbor. The docks and buildings on the water front are torn and burned. The Japanese shells reach every part of the city and harbor.

Bombarded the Arsenal.

Tokio, Dec. 15.—The commander of the naval guns overlooking Port Arthur, reporting at 10 o'clock Tuesday night, says:

"To-day's bombardment was principally directed against the arsenal and torpedo store house at Tiger's Tail peninsula, and the vessels anchored in that vicinity. The store house was set on fire and burned in about an hour. About six shells struck the ships, and three vessels used for various purposes were destroyed. One took fire and sank. The bombardment of buildings caused serious damage. The result of the indirect bombardment of the Sevastopol has not been ascertained, owing to the inclement weather."

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT.

It Intends to Commit Itself to Very Extensive Reforms.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 15.—There is no longer any doubt that the government intends to commit itself to very extensive reforms, as the result of the liberal agitation begun when Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky made his advent as minister of the interior. The zemstvoist demands for a direct representative body to make the laws of the nation will not be granted; but some medium in the form of a representative consultative body, which can voice the wishes of the people direct to the sovereign, now seems the probable outcome. An entirely new law for the liberalization of the press also is apparently certain.

DESTITUTE PORTO RICANS.

Hundreds of Them Are Returning From Hawaii.

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—The Bulletin states that about 500 Porto Ricans, whose contracts for working in the sugar plantations of Hawaii have expired, are in this city in a destitute condition. It is declared that nearly 5,000 more will soon arrive from the islands. They did not find the condition of labor in Hawaii agreeable, but none is anxious to return to Porto Rico, preferring to remain in this country.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Dec. 15.—J. R. Walker, alias J. W. Randall, who was arrested at Covington, Ky., last Friday on the charge of feloniously issuing warehouse receipts, was brought here Wednesday and is now in jail.

THE BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Henry Noble Testified That He Saw White Fire the Shot.

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 15.—In the trial of the Marcum damage case, the examination of Capt. B. J. Ewen was finished Wednesday morning and Henry Noble was called. He is county superintendent of Thackett county and was a clerk for Hargis Bros. for ten years. He heard the shooting when Marcum was killed and rushed out. He saw Tom White go in at a side door, fire a shot into the prostrate body, put his pistol under his coat and walked leisurely back to the Hargis store. Witness viewed the dead body of Marcum. Went back to the store, where he found White, Callahan and James Hargis, and heard White ask what Hargis and Callahan were going to do about that money.

John S. Noble, the famous "Rat Ankle" Noble, was called but failed to respond and an attachment was ordered for him.

Buck Cottongane testified that French saw him in Leslie county and told him that Marcum was middle-some and the Hargises would have to have him killed and that when the Hargises found people in their way they managed to get rid of them. The conversation took place near where Nick Combs and Joe Eversole, the first victims of the French Eversole feud, were killed, and French told witness he could get money for the same kind of work that was done at that place.

Charles Anderson, a student at Jackson academy, said he saw Marcum when killed and that he looked up and saw James Hargis at an up-stairs window of his store with a gun in his hands. Saw two others whom he could not recognize. Over the objection of the defense, Ruck Cottongane said defendant, French, offered Mose Feltner $1,000 to leave and take away other witnesses, and afterward Feltner did so, and seemed to have plenty of money.

Mrs. Rebecca Bailey, mother of Mose Feltner, at different times said she saw Callahan and French and each wanted Mose Feltner to help them and they would help him out of trial for the murder of Jesse Fields. As an argument French said the Hargises were all-powerful in Breathitt county, that the circuit judge would do as they said, that Gov. Beckham was their friend and would do what they wished.

MAN KIDNAPED.

He Paid $200 and Gave a Cow For His Release.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 15.—A special from Louisa, Ky., says: John Babers Wallace was kidnaped just across the river from this place by a party of eight men composed. It is alleged, of Morgan Curry and two brothers, Lew and Charles Dill, Stewart McNeally and two others. Wallace was taken up Tug river ten miles into West Virginia. He paid the captors $200 to spare his life and later he gave them a cow to release him. The men refused to accept Wallace's check, but John Y. York, a merchant, accepted it and gave them his own check.

This episode was the result of trouble which occurred about three weeks ago ten miles up Tug river. All the parties live in that neighborhood, and some of them are alleged to have been in the liquor business. Wallace was one of these.

Opposition grew so strong, it is said, that it finally resulted in a raid on Wallace's place, which was entirely destroyed. During the trouble Mrs. Wallace was shot in the leg and a ball from her Winchester entered Tom Curry's breast. Wallace secured warrants and one of the Dills was then put in jail. Wallace was surprised on returning home by the eight men who captured him. Rewards aggregating $350 have been offered by the county for the arrest of the Curry gang.

THE SWAYNE CASE

United States Senate Notified of the Impeachment Proceedings in the House.

PREPARING DETAILS OF THE TRIAL

The Urgent Deficiency Bill and Other Bills of a Public Nature Passed in the House.

Philippine Government Bill and the Pure Food Measure Was Under Consideration in the Upper Branch of Congress.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Senate.—The senate, which under the constitution is made the trial court in impeachment cases, Wednesday received official notice of the determination of the house of representatives to present impeachment charges against Hon. Charles Swayne, federal judge in the northern district of Florida. The matter was brought to the senate's attention by a house committee and the senate appointed a committee to prepare the details of the proposed trial. The senate considered the Philippine government bill and the pure food bill. Mr. Foraker presented a tariff amendment to the Philippine bill, but on complaint of Mr. Dubois and other senators that this provision had not been contemplated when the senate entered into an agreement to vote on the bill next Friday, it was withdrawn. A number of semi-public bills were passed.

House.—Further action on the impeachment proceedings against Judge Charles Swayne, of the northern district of Florida, was taken in the house Wednesday by the appointment of the committee of seven provided for by a resolution adopted Tuesday to draft the charges for presentation to the senate and by the reception of the report of the committee of five to notify the senate of the impeachment, who announced that they had performed their duty and that the senate had responded that "Order shall be taken." The urgent deficiency bill and several other bills of a public nature were passed.

Senator Dietrich introduced an amendment to the Philippine bill proposing that all officers of the United States army, navy and marine corps or constabulary officers of the Philippine government shall have the privilege of free entry on all articles, including used household goods, uniforms and articles for equipment and service, imported for their own use and benefit, and not for barter or sale. Senator McComas proposed an amendment to give the Philippine commission and any succeeding legislature of the Philippine islands, subject to subsequent repeal or modification by congress, power to amend the act for the revision and amendment of the tariff laws of the Philippine archipelago.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair and cold to-night; Friday rain, with rising temperature.

THE EVENING OF WEEKLY BULLETIN for a year to your friend or relative would be a Christmas present as is a Christmas present—an every day reminder of your friendship.

ALL the world knows the remark of the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina, "It's a long time between drinks." The true history of this famous anecdote was told recently by Tillman, says the New York Herald. It appears that the phrase was first heard at a political dinner when the Governors of both North and South Carolina were present. The first Governor had delivered a fiery political speech. The situation was intense when the turn came for the Governor of South Carolina to speak. It seemed that any word the Governor might say would complicate the situation; even should he keep silent his opinion would seem clear. It was at this critical moment that the Governor of the other Carolina rose, and, inspired by a stroke of genius, remarked: "It's a long time between drinks." The absolutely non-committal remark saved the situation.

ONE of the greatest factors in pushing the claims of a town to the front and making it boom is a well conducted business men's association, board of trade, improvement club or an organization under any other name having for its object the forwarding of the interests of the place in which it is located.

Every town has a large amount of latent enterprise lying dormant, awaiting the opportunity for exercise. There are also many desirable business and manufacturing enterprises seeking location which would be warmly welcomed and substantially encouraged if some medium were provided through which the citizens and those seeking investment could confer and negotiate. The phenomenal progress of all the "magic cities" of the South and West is mainly due to the efforts of these organizations.

Every town should have a well supported business men's association, composed of wide awake, go ahead, progressive citizens, who will make known to the world the inducements their town offers for the location of manufacturing industries and other enterprises which will employ labor, make business for the merchants and furnish a home market for the produce of the farms.

INEXCUSABLE CARELESSNESS

The Cause of Most Accidents On Railways, Says a Writer in the Engineering Magazine.

A writer in the December issue of the Engineering Magazine, says that the large number of accidents on American railways is attributable to a habit of carelessness which trainmen cultivate with the connivance of their superiors. The operating rules, he says, are sufficient to prevent nearly every accident, but they are habitually disregarded.

Given a solid roadbed, heavy rails, strong equipment, proper signals and almost perfect operating rules, why do we have the almost daily murder of passengers from preventable accidents?

Because the admirable rules for the government of employees are daily disregarded.

A train is unexpectedly stopped between stations. The rules provide that a flagman must go back a very considerable distance. It is snowing. A long tramp means wet feet. The flagman reasons: "We will be here only a few seconds anyway. I will be called in before I can get back to my post, and then the train will be delayed while I am running back to it—besides, the block signal will hold back any following train."

Many roads having installed a perfect system of block signals destroy its entire effectiveness by establishing the "permissive block," "going ahead under green." By this system a following train is given discretionary power to run into a block already occupied. This permission is always coupled with the injunction that the engineer must use caution, and "at all times have his train under perfect control." But in actual operation "caution" usually means not exceeding the maximum possible speed of the engine.

I once stood by the side of a busy line with the signal engineer of the road, he continued. This line had a complete installation of block signals. We watched a dozen heavy freights rush by at thirty miles an hour, with not a hundred yards of daylight separating any two of them. I expressed surprise at the reckless disregard of signals, and the officer said: "Freights run regardless of the blocks. We couldn't get them over the road if we kept them a block apart."

In the rear end collision last year on the Central of New Jersey, the engineer of the following train disregarded the red block, the waving lanterns of two flagmen, and the tail lights of the first train, into which he plunged.

In a butting collision a few months ago in Michigan the engineers of the opposing trains saw each others headlights on a straight track for four miles.

THE AUDIENCE SHRIEKED

When the Girls Were Soundly Spanked While Being Initiated Into an Art Society.

As part of unique initiation ceremonies twenty-three young and handsome women were soundly spanked with a slap stick the other night in the rooms of the Chicago Art Institute while the audience of 400 members of the Women's Life Class shrieked approval.

The spaking was a decided surprise to the novitiates, who had been told that the ceremonies were to consist of tableaux in King Arthur's time. When they entered in black skirts and "gunny-sack" jumpers they saw "King Arthur," the "Archbishop of Canterbury" and the Twelve Knights of the Table awaiting them in costume on either side of a row of turned-down chairs.

The girls were commanded to crawl beneath the arch formed by the chairs and "presto change."

"Spank!" sounded from "King Arthur," who instead of a sword flashed a pair of patent "spankers."

"Spank!" from the Archbishop and "spank" from the Knights in Armour.

Then followed cake walks in stocking feet over a bean-strewn floor, a merry-go-round of leap-frog and a separate punishment for every girl.

Advice to Young Men.

We hear much about forging to the front, taking time by the forelock, seizing the bull by the horns, and the like, and also that the man with the tail-hold is entirely ignored. Nine men out of ten wisely follow, and succeed, where one does who charges around at the front all the time. If you miss the forelock, seize the tail. It is the hanging on more than the particular hold that counts. The man will go just as fast and nearly as far who has hold of the tail as the one hanging onto the horn; besides, he can hold on better, and is in less danger. Young man, don't be too anxious to get rapidly to the front, but hang on to what you have, and you will get ahead in the world just as fast as you deserve—Exchange.

Impressed by the need of an institution where money may be obtained at any hour, prominent New York financiers and commercial men have organized the first night and day bank and safe deposit company. The names of men prominent in the business and social world appear in the organization committee and the capital stock of $250,000 was promptly subscribed. The concern will have a working surplus of $250,000.

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave.
HOT SPRINGS, ARK., April 30, 1903.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

I look on Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHAUTAUQU CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.

THE RIVER CLOSED.

Towboat Thornton Tries to Get Through Yesterday and Has a Desperate Battle With the Ice.

Nearly 400 barges, representing many hundreds of thousands of dollars, are facing a very dangerous problem in the Kanawha. The river is very low and the barges lying at the mouth can not be moved. When a thaw comes the ice will go out with a rush and carry everything with it.

As predicted yesterday, another cold night did the trick, and the river is frozen over at this point. Considering the low stage and the sluggish current, it is pretty certain that the freeze-up extends all the way to headwaters. The ice is not gorged, as would happen with a better stage of water, but is as smooth, almost, as a large plate of glass. Another night or two of low temperature would make it good and strong—quite safe enough for skating—and excellent sport in that line is promised. At present, however, extreme caution should be exercised, for the ice is thin and liable to break through under the weight of numbers.

The little towboat M. L. Thornton, with four flats of coal consigned to points below, sought protection behind the ice piers yesterday morning. Just before noon the Captain thought he saw an opening and pulled out with the hope of being able to reach Ripley with his cargo, the town being without fuel. In attempting to run between an immense floe and the sandbar on the Ohio side the Thornton hugged shore a little too closely and grounded slightly. She tried to back off up stream, but just then the ice began to crowd her up on the sand. The little steamer careened a bit, and it began to look like part of the tow might be lost. The shouts of command could be heard and the excitement of the crew plainly seen by watchers on this side. After nearly an hour's hard work the Thornton managed to back out into a clear space and lost no time in creeping back into her berth behind the piers, where she now is, icebound.

CHARLES TABB DEAD.

Former Maysville Merchant Passed Away This Morning at His Home in Cincinnati.

Relatives here received a telegram announcing the death this morning at 6 o'clock, at Cincinnati, of Mr. Charles Tabb, a former resident of Maysville.

He had been ill since early last fall from a complication of diseases but was improving, and was preparing to spend the winter in Florida when he suffered a relapse ten days ago and gradually grew worse until the end came at the hour stated.

Mr. Tabb was a prominent tobacco and grain merchant here up to the time he moved to Cincinnati, where he engaged in similar business.

The remains will be brought here for burial, but no further details have been learned.

The temperature was down to 7° last night.

This would be a great world if people could somehow be compelled to keep all the good resolutions they make.

Colonel Craddock, the venerable editor of the Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Lexington Tuesday for treatment. He fell on the icy sidewalk at Paris and was considerably shaken up. He also contracted a severe cold and is threatened with pneumonia.

There will be an important meeting of the tobacco growers at the court house in this city Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of giving the farmers an opportunity to subscribe for the balance of the $20,000 worth of stock in the 'Growers' Association assigned to Mason County. This is the last call and it is hoped there will be no further hesitancy. The importance of this matter should not be overlooked.

Miss Nannie Tucker returned Monday from Lexington where the Mystic Black Cat Club, of which she is a member, entertained Saturday. The function was a dainty luncheon in honor of their guest, Miss Mindwell Crampton, of Purdue University. The luncheon was served in President Patterson's private office by Mr. John McGurk, the State College caterer. The decorations were potted plants and the club colors, black and yellow, the leading flower being the La France Rose. The menu was in seven courses.

The Simple Life.

From the way society folks are going on about the Simple Life, since President Roosevelt sounded the keynote, one might suppose it to be some new science. It is the old, old story, however. Solomon spoke of it, and the blessed Nazarene lived and taught it. But it is well that it should be repeated and emphasized, for we are drifting afar from it. Commercialism (the idolatry of the dollar) and vainglory (the love of self-show) are the great sins of the day.—Lexington Herald.
